“Helping to Increase Your Public Safety Awareness”

‘No Secrets’

Identifying different types of child sexual predators, how they operate and how to avoid being victimized.

Presentation by William H. Dworin

‘No Secrets’ is an awareness/prevention program for parents and their children. Megan’s Law will be discussed as well.

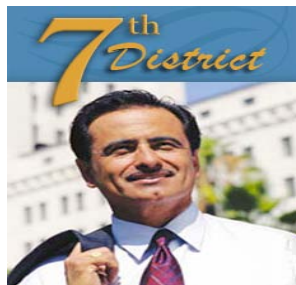

Bill Dworin is a nationally recognized expert and has conducted training for professional, civic and law enforcement groups throughout the United States. Conducting several thousand investigations, both reactive and proactive relating to the sexual exploitation of children, he has interviewed over thirty-five hundred children and over twenty-five hundred offenders. His innovative investigative approaches are now common practice among law enforcement agencies.

Retired after thirty-four years with the Los Angeles Police Department, Bill Dworin has worked with the Los Angeles City Attorney and the Los Angeles Commission on Children, Youth and the Family & has over twenty-two years experience in the field of child sexual exploitation and abuse.
